Govt postpones remaining Ctg HSC, equivalent exams

Staff Correspondent  18 July, 2026, 04:27

The ongoing Higher Secondary Certificate and equivalent examinations in all districts under the Chattogram division would remain postponed until further notice, according to the education ministry.

Bangladesh Inter-Education Board Coordination Committee on Thursday night issued a press release in this regard.

The release read that the decision was taken in view of the overall situation of the affected areas in the recent post-flood situation.

Due to the post-flood conditions, the physical and mental well-being of the examinees, discussions with stakeholders, and the severe difficulties in traveling to examination centres on damaged roads, the remaining HSC and equivalent examinations have been postponed indefinitely.

The revised schedule of the examination will be announced later through a notification.

Examinations in other districts under other divisions will be held as usual, the release added.

The HSC and equivalent examinations started on July 2.

Due to inclement weather the government earlier suspended the examinations in Chattogram division on July 8 to 16.
