The results of this year's Secondary School Certificate and its equivalent examinations will be published on August 10 across Bangladesh.

The Bangladesh Inter-Education Board Coordination Committee on Monday issued a press release, signed by the committee chief Professor Sayed Aktaruzzaman, in this regard.

The release also reads that the rules to get results will be informed later.

This year the SSC and equivalent examinations started on April 21.

The number of the SSC and equivalent examinees this year is 18.57 lakh.
