ETS, a global education and talent solutions organisation and creator of the TOEFL iBT test, recently organised its first official in-person TOEFL Experience Day in Bangladesh at Amari Dhaka, bringing together more than 100 English-language trainers, TOEFL preparation professionals, counsellors, educators and channel partners.

According to a press release, the two-hour programme was led by ETS experts and senior leaders from its South Asia team. Participants were introduced to the four strategic pillars of TOEFL, Fair, Agile, Smart and Tailored, and received guidance on the Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening sections of the enhanced TOEFL iBT test.

The participants also received official preparation resources, including the TOEFL Overview Booklet, lesson plans, a study planner, access to TOEFL Practice Online and the pocket edition of the TOEFL Guide.

Karan Lalit, executive director, South Asia, TOEFL and GRE, ETS, said that Bangladesh was an important and high-potential market for international education.
